

Country Director – Assumes overall responsibility of Village Corps volunteer network for specified country. Manages relationships between subordinate staff, Village Corps Fellows, and when necessary liaise with Village Corp HQ Staff. Individual is expected to be point person for operational functions within the country and complete Village Corp Fellows training.

Research Coordinator - Overseas Research Specialists and Research Assistants in collecting data for input into Village Corps database. Directs focus of research based on real-time needs of villages and partners.

Research Specialist – Maintains working knowledge of potential partners and projects in the region. Structured to be an advanced Research Assistant who has expressed an interest or has prior knowledge of a specific area within sustainable development. Potential to be coupled with Experts within their area of specialization for further knowledge acquisition.

- Education Specialist
- Food & Water Specialist
- Healthcare Specialist
- Employment Specialist
- Energy Specialist
- Infrastructure Specialist
- Sanitation Specialist
- Government Specialist

Research Assistant – Responsible for researching potential partners for local villages. Entry level position with no prior knowledge of development work required. Great way for individuals to test the waters before becoming more involved with Village Corps.

Expert Coordinator – Builds relationships with local experts to assist villages in successfully completing projects (later to provide expertise to assist in projects around the world). Provides atmosphere of collaboration and teaching that allows for innovation and knowledge transfers.

Specialty Expert – Proven thought leaders in their field who offer their services in an advisory capacity. Helps to transfer knowledge for practical application within village environment. Collaborates with other Experts to create innovative approaches to dealing with issues in developing world.

- Education Expert
- Food & Water Expert
- Healthcare Expert
- Employment Expert
- Energy Expert
- Infrastructure Expert
- Sanitation Expert
- Government Expert

Fundraising Coordinator – Supervises all fundraising initiatives and staff. Develops local staff and plans of action to be effective in building small-scale initiatives. Identifying opportunities for partnerships for villages (at the global scale: looks for potential partnership/sponsorship/investing for Village Corps).

Fundraising Specialist – Charged with creating local networks for fundraising initiatives. Organizing people at a personal level to become involved with Village Corps through time, service or monetary contribution.

- Events Specialist
- Sponsorship Specialist
- Donor Specialist
- Investing Specialist
- Grant Specialist

Communication Coordinator – Oversees all local communication staff. Maintains extensive knowledge of local media and monitors sources for any news about local village or Village Corps. Builds relationships with other like-minded groups for content sharing across the Internet and traditional media.

Multimedia Specialist – Staffer dedicated to receiving raw multimedia from the field and creating engaging media in support of local village initiatives and Village Corps mission. Subsequently posts media on blogs, websites, and social media outlets that are of interests to Village Corps mission.

Press Liaison – Handles media requests and writes press releases at the local level. Creates monthly e-newsletter highlighting the achievements of Village Corps in their country. Maintains close relationship with Multimedia Specialist and creates/maintains a blog promoting the villages that are apart of the network.

Software Programmer – Innovate, Innovate, Innovate. Collaborate with other programmers to create new applications for use with Aedi Technology platform. Create new applications for use with pre-existing social media platforms, technologies, and mobile devices.